Half Term Film: Dumbo E

Wednesday 23 October, 11am (Cert PG, 112 mins) £4

Tim Burton's live action remake of the classic Disney animation. Dumbo the baby elephant is born in a struggling circus with oversized ears. When the circus owner discovers that Dumbo's ears enable him to fly, the little elephant becomes the main attraction, revitalising the rundown circus. But Dumbo's growing fame draws attention from less scrupulous entertainers seeking to exploit the innocent young elephant.

Rumpelstiltskin and the Snail of Destiny E

Thursday 24 October, 2pm (Ages 3+, 50 mins) £12 / £10 concs

Poor Polly Buckwheat, the Miller's daughter, is in a bit of a pickle! If she doesn't turn a roomful of straw into gold by morning, the greedy King will turn a bit nasty. But should she accept the kind help of an eccentric dwarf who mysteriously appears in her prison cell?

Of all the fairytale characters, Rumpelstiltskin has got to be the most mixed up. He is helpful yet demanding; secretive yet nosy; short yet owning a name as long as his beard. Not surprisingly, this story of transformation will make you laugh and gasp at the same time! Using its trademark puppets, music, storytelling and transforming sets, Widdershins creates gold on stage with this new version of Grimm's classic tale.

Harrow Arts Centre are proud to be associated with the Family Arts Standards and Fantastic For Families.

Make Your Own Monoprint Workshop

Friday 25 October, 11am-1pm (Ages 6-12) £15 per child

UnIndian

UnIndian E G

Friday 27 Sep, 7.30pm (Cert 15, 102 mins)

£5 / £4 The Guestlist

Beautiful divorcee and single mother Meera is an Australian of Indian origin. Successful and independent, she lives her life on her own terms despite pressure from her family to find 'a nice Indian match'. Then Meera meets Will, a tall blond Australian with a charming smile. But falling in love with an Australian man is not only scandalous - it's unIndian! A comedy exploring the challenges of cross-cultural romance. Please note: This film includes scenes of religious sensitivity.

Layered Memoirs by Julie Menalou

Subtle Changes

31 August - 13 September

A collection of recent work from Dr. Supriya Fulare resulting out of her obsession with the river Thames. As a child Supriya nearly drowned in a river, experienced absolute darkness and fear of death. Since then, she has been totally possessed by the concept of a vanishing River, reflected in this exhibition.

Layered Memoirs by Julie Menalou

17 - 29 September

This body of works is about layers of an absence negotiating a presence of time and space in between the two places in which the artist calls home. A continuation from her previous solo show titled 'An Absence Renegotiating a Presence'. Collective conscious memoirs of mapped observations reveal the intricate relationship between self, work and context.

The Story of the Windrush Generation

1 - 30 October

This photographic exhibition from Learning Through the Arts focuses on the commemoration of what has now become a land mark in British modern history - The arrival of Empire Windrush's voyage from the Caribbean to Tilbury in 1948 and how 70 years later this event has changed the fabric of British society as it is today.

U3A Portrait Class Students' Exhibition

5 - 17 November

Work made in the classes by retired people. The majority of participants are amateur and thought it would be fun to have an exhibition of portraits, figure drawings and paintings.

St Margaret School Exhibition

1 - 31 December

This exhibition includes a wide variety of diverse and vibrant work reflecting the broad cultural spectrum from students at St Margaret School. Pieces include textiles, photography as well as the more traditional fine art media.

We have partnered with Learn Harrow to bring you a range of workshops for families and adults held at HAC. For further information and to book please visit www.learnharrow.ac.uk
