Kindness: A Legacy of the Holocaust E

Wednesday 26 January, 7pm (2hrs)

£10 / £8 concs / £6 schools (Ages 11+)

Kindness is largely a verbatim play based on the testimony of Hungarian survivor Susan Pollack MBE, aged only 13 when she was sent to the notorious Auschwitz-Birkenau in the summer of 1944. Interwoven are a number of complementary narratives, including Mala Zimetbaum and Edek Galinski's stunning love story, painted across a backdrop of one of the darkest periods in human history. This performance includes a Q&A with the show's contributors.

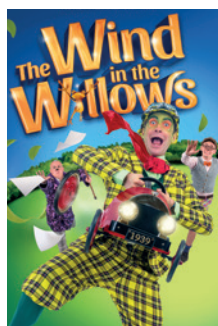

Holocaust Memorial Day 2022: One Day E

Thursday 27 January, 7pm (1hr 30min)

Free but must book in advance

People of every Faith or no Faith are invited to Harrow's Holocaust Memorial Day Event to hear first-hand accounts of the Holocaust, from members of the Uyghur community and much more. With musical performances and special guest speakers including Lord Daniel Finkelstein, join us for an evening of remembrance.

The Wind in the Willows E

Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 February, 11am and 2.30pm
(1hr 50min)

£12 / £10 concs (Ages 4+)

Pack your picnics and join Ratty, Mole, Badger, and the fantastically irrepressible Toad as they embark on the adventure of a lifetime culminating in a colourful battle to save Toad Hall from the mischievous weasels!

Multi-award nominated Immersion Theatre proudly bring their trademark style and energy to the riverbank with heaps of interaction, stunning costumes, toe-tapping music, and larger-than-life characters, a TOAD-ally terrific treat whether you're 4 or 104!

Book Ends

Saturday 5 March, 10am, 11.30am, 2pm & 3.30pm (30mins)

The Boiler House

£8 / £6 concs (Ages 2-14)

Join us as we celebrate World Book Day by bringing stories to life! With a rickety old book cart and some novel ideas, surprises leap off every page wherever our papery pals roam. Join our book-bonkers buddies as they act out tales of whales, bonkers bears and manic monsters.

Captain Calamity: Adventures on Dragon Island E

Tuesday 5 April, 11.30am & 3pm (55mins)

£10 / £8 concs (Ages 3+)

In this brand-new family adventure show, Guinness World Record Breaking Captain Calamity and Animal Expert, Ranger Stu team up to rescue Dragon Island from extinction. Myths are busted, theories are tested, animals are encountered and kids of all ages are blown away!

Birdie's Adventures in the Animal Kingdom E

Wednesday 13 April, 11am & 3.30pm (1hr)

£8 / £6 concs (Ages 6+)

Join 10 year old Londoner Birdie and her sidekick Robin as they fly around the world on a mission to save their fellow animals in the kingdom and to find a new protector. From Holly the Polar Bear to Shelly the Turtle, the animals need our help. Who will be the new protector and will they get there in time?

Joel Dommett

Ed Byrne: If I'm Honest E

Friday 4 March, 8pm

£25 (Ages 16+)

Ed Byrne presents his brand-new masterclass in observational comedy! Join Ed as he takes a long hard look at himself and tries to decide if he has ANY traits that are worth passing on to his children. A TV household name, in the past year Ed has appeared on Live At The Apollo (Host, BBC), Mock The Week (BBC), The Pilgrimage (BBC), Top Gear (BBC) and QI (BBC).

Joel Dommett: Unapologetic (if that's ok?) E

Saturday 12 March, 8pm (2hrs)

£18

Join Joel as he brings you bang up to date on his life since his last live show! He has become a regular face on TV, from being a finalist in 2016's I'm a Celebrity, Get Me Out of Here! (ITV), to then hosting ITV2's I'm a Celebrity Extra Camp alongside Scarlett Moffatt and Joe Swash.

Rich Hall's Hoedown Deluxe E

Saturday 19 March, 8pm (2hrs)

£17 (Ages 14+)

Rich Hall's comedy/music locomotive keeps on rollin'. Ever-evolving, ever-changing, Rich's combination of keen acerbic stand-up combined with spit and sawdust alt-country lyricism is a "win-win" (The Guardian), as sold out crowds across the UK have attested.

Rocket Man - A Tribute to Elton John

Rocket Man - A Tribute to Elton John E

Norma Stephenson - A Retrospective

Workshops

Digital Photography Course LH

Saturdays, 12 March - 2 April, 10am-5pm

The Boiler House

£12 /£6 for concessions (Unemployed Adults 19+)

This four week photography course focuses on an introduction to the camera and how to use it in a commercial way. We will cover all the major aspects of photography as well as developing confidence through fun and engaging activities. This course will give you a good starting point into different ways of making a career in photography as well as developing your creative skills.

Pottery and Ceramics Course LH

Mondays, 21 March - 11 April, 10am-12pm

Rayners Room

£12 / £6 concs (Ages 40+)

Colour and Clay brings this four week hand built pottery course to HAC for older adults who feel at risk of isolation. These classes aim to bring joy through both process and result, facilitating a relaxed atmosphere where individuals can build new friendships and enhance feelings of well-being.

Exhibitions

Norma Stephenson - A Retrospective

18 - 23 January

The Gallery

An exhibition celebrating the work of local artist Norma Stephenson featuring an eclectic mix of figures, portraits, still lifes and animal studies in acrylics, pastels and charcoal. Norma's work is inspired by the infinite variety of the human form, found objects and childhood memories.

When Brixton Went on Fire: 40 Years After

30 March - 13 April

The Gallery

A project which commemorates the 40 year anniversary of the 1981 Brixton Uprising, the first large scale racial confrontation in the UK between the black community and London's mostly white Metropolitan Police. Triggered by racial discrimination, particularly the police's increased use of stop-and-search targeting black people, rioters - predominately young, black men - fought police, attacked buildings and set fire to vehicles over three days.

Royal West African Frontier Force

19 - 29 April

The Gallery

During the Second World War over half-a-million African troops served with the British Army as combatants and non-combatants in campaigns in the Horn of Africa, the Middle East, Italy and Burma - the largest single movement of African men overseas since the slave trade. This exhibition captures the experience of African soldiers in World War II.
